“Electronic Notification Systems (USA and Europe)” course (including USCG Electronic Notice of Arrival/Departure – eNOAD and European SAFESEANET) is a training program for ship’s Masters and Senior Officers.

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

- Understand USA Arrival Notification Procedures.
- Understand the objectives of eNOAD.
- Familiarize with USA Federal Rules 33CFR180.
- Demonstrate competence in sending eNOAD by different methods.
- Demonstrate competence in sending US Ballast Reporting Notification.
- Familiarize with US Automated Manifest System (AMS) regulations.
- Demonstrate competence in providing of Notification to SafeSeaNet.

On completion of the course the learner/trainee should be able to demonstrate sufficient understanding and knowledge of the:

- USA Federal requirements with regards to pre-arrival notification procedures and alternative methods of submitting such notifications, including eNOAD.
- EU SAFESEANET System.

DURATION OF THE TRAINING COURSE

The duration of the “Electronic Notification Systems (USA and Europe)” course is 1 working day.

COURSE CONTENTS

TRAINING APPROACHES AND EQUIPMENT

During training course theoretical lessons are given using PowerPoint presentations, practical tasks are conducted on the PC with latest versions of the USCG application form and PC Programme simulation of the SAFESEANET.

METHODS FOR SUBMITTING AN NOA/D.

- Structure of the E-NOA/D Application form;
- Electronic submission of the NOAD Workbook - Version 7.5;
- Electronic submission via Microsoft InfoPath;
- Electronic submission directly to a web site;

US Automated Manifest System (AMS).

- Familiarization with US Automated Manifest System (AMS);
- Definitions of the Standard Carrier Alpha Code (SCAC) and an International Carrier Bond;

Principles of the e-NOA/D notification.

- Benefits/Advantages of the electronic notification;
- Advantages of the e-NOA/D Application;
- Methods for submitting an NOA;
- E-NOA/D notification Procedure;

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

- Understand USA Arrival Notification Procedures.
- Understand the objectives of eNOAD.
- Familiarize with USA Federal Rules 33CFR180.
- Demonstrate competence in sending eNOAD by different methods.
- Demonstrate competence in sending US Ballast Reporting Notification.
- Familiarize with US Automated Manifest System (AMS) regulations.
- Demonstrate competence in providing of Notification to SafeSeaNet.

On completion of the course the learner/trainee should be able to demonstrate sufficient understanding and knowledge of the:

- USA Federal requirements with regards to pre-arrival notification procedures and alternative methods of submitting such notifications, including eNOAD.
- EU SAFESEANET System.

COURSE LIMITATIONS

- The maximum number of participants – 9 persons

ENTRY STANDARDS

Training program for ship’s Masters and Senior Officers meeting STCW I/2. Function: Controlling the operation of the ship and care for persons on board at the management level.

DURATION OF THE TRAINING COURSE

The duration of the “Electronic Notification Systems (USA and Europe)” is 1 working day.

TRAINING APPROACHES AND EQUIPMENT

During training course theoretical lessons are given using PowerPoint presentations, practical tasks are conducted on the PC with latest versions of the USCG application form and PC Programme simulation of the SAFESEANET.

ENTRY STANDARDS

Training program for ship’s Masters and Senior Officers meeting STCW I/2. Function: Controlling the operation of the ship and care for persons on board at the management level.

DURATION OF THE TRAINING COURSE

The duration of the “Electronic Notification Systems (USA and Europe)” is 1 working day.

TRAINING APPROACHES AND EQUIPMENT

During training course theoretical lessons are given using PowerPoint presentations, practical tasks are conducted on the PC with latest versions of the USCG application form and PC Programme simulation of the SAFESEANET.